

Duke of Edinburgh's International Award – Canada Award Awareness Week – October 21-27, 2024

Proclamation

- WHEREAS The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Canada is a global framework for non-formal education and learning that challenges young people to dream big, celebrate their achievements and make a difference in their world; and
- WHEREAS Participation in the Duke of Edinburgh's International Award Canada supports local communities through inter-generational relationship building and voluntary service; and
- WHEREAS More than 8,100 young people from Newfoundland and Labrador aged 14-24 have achieved an Award in the last 40 years, developing life skills that lead to personal growth and achievement; and
- WHEREAS The Province of Newfoundland and Labrador recognizes and acknowledges the impact the award has on youth in developing skills, getting physically active, giving service, and experiencing adventure.

I, the Honourable Krista Lynn Howell, Minister of Education for the Province of Newfoundland and Labrador, do hereby recognize the week of October 21-27, 2024 as The Duke of Edinburgh's International Award - Canada Award Awareness Week.

Signed this 17th day of October, 2024

HONOURABLE KRISTA LYNN HOWELL
Minister of Education